

The voice of the citizens should be heard, Over 2.8 million in the state of New Jersey alone should not loose out to big business.It's about time a persons choice should not loose because big business pays our government off again.